2007 SUMMER CONFERENCE

Ross Dance is pleased to announce our second annual summer conference. This two day program caters to young dancers, adults, and professionals who participate in companies, studios, or/and dance teams. Our wonderful staff includes Antoine Hunter from Savage Jazz, Amy Malepeai, Paris Adkins and Tecsia Ross from Ross Dance. Our staff are members of the Alvin Ailey summer camp in Oakland and have danced for companies such as Oakland Ballet, JAMZ and Alayo Dance Company.

Our staff is dedicated in helping individuals become versatile dancers. We teach skills that will improve a dancer's technical abilities so he/she may perform better at the next audition, performance, competition or class. The first day will cater to beginner/intermediate dancers by teaching technique classes and dance combos in hip hop, ballet and jazz. The second day will cater to advance and professional dancers by teaching master level classes in hip hop, jazz, modern, and contemporary ballet and will end with a Q&A with Tecsia Ross about the company and professional dance

Registration form and payment must be received by May 10, 2007.

Our program will be held San Francisco Dance Center. All participants must complete the registration form and mail the form along, with the registration fee at the below address. After receiving your payment and form, you will receive a confirmation email.
